Notes of Steel

Where did the summer go? The calendar says back to school for children and fewer hours of daylight.

I visited Greenland this summer. I thought Greenland was all ice, but all we saw was rocks. We visited the capital Nuuk, Qaqortoq, and Nanortalik. The hilly landscape is dotted with colorful homes. Few roads serve the inland, and boats are the only way to travel within the country.

Have you ever thought about viewing the Northern Lights? Visiting Finland from December to March is the best time to see the Northern Lights. You can also sleep in a glass igloo, see Lapp reindeer, and meet Santa Claus. You can do all this on a tour with Collette Travel.

In a year, REAL ID will be here. Beat the rush! Our FACEBOOK page has useful information about REAL ID and other topics.

Please call TRAVEL JUNCTION and let us help plan your amazing vacation.
